

International Computer Symposium 2022 (ICS 2022)

15-17 December, Taoyuan, Taiwan

Workshop of Cryptography and Information Security (CAIS 2022) in conjunction with ICS 2022

Call for Papers

The 2022 Workshop of Cryptography and Information Security (CAIS 2022) in conjunction with ICS 2022 will be held in Taoyuan, Taiwan, December 15-17, 2022. The main focus of the workshop will be on the novel proposal of techniques for information, network and systems security. This workshop will become a forum for researchers to summarize the most recent developments in the field, with a special emphasis given to the improvements and results. The proceedings of ICS 2022 will be published by Springer in series of Communications in Computer and Information Science, CCIS (pending approval). Some accepted papers of this workshop will be invited for the special issue Information Theory and Its Applications in Multimedia Security and Processing in Entropy journal (SCI IF: 2.738). The topics in CAIS 2022 include, but are not limited to:

- Cryptography and Cryptanalysis
- Communication and Network Security
- Watermarking and Data Hiding
- Key Management and Cryptographic Protocols
- Block/Stream Cipher
- Cloud Computing Security
- Intrusion Avoidance and Detection
- Computer Forensics
- Digital Rights Management
- Security of e-Commerce and e-Government
- Database and Distributed System Security
- Security in Pervasive/Ubiquitous Computing
- Software Security and Malicious Codes
- Access Control
- Authentication and Authorization
- Security Evaluations and Measurements
- Trusted Computing
- IoT Security
- Blockchain Technology

Before submission, authors should carefully read over submission guidelines, located at <https://ics2022.ntub.edu.tw>. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript (using springer template no more than 12 pages) in an electronic format through the conference manuscript submission system at <https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=ics2022> according to the following timetable:
